

entitled to based on his pension. What I would hope we would do, if we want to address the question of other people, that we leave this section clean, Senator Mills, so that we deal with this specific issue here because it is in relationship with federal law. So if you want to pursue that other issue, and I don't think they are covered, I think a police officer could draw unemployment only in terms of his job and not retirement but that is a separate issue. So I would hope that we take this one now, and if we want to talk about a policeman retiring or a teacher retiring and attempting to draw, then that is a separate and apart issue.

SENATOR MARSH: It has been drawn to my attention that many times our military personnel have not had an equal salary to private industry and this is particularly true at the lower ranking grades. I am a little concerned about this entire bill in its current shape so I have some real questions and I don't know the right questions to ask at this time. So if someone wants my support on this bill, I better have additional explanation. Right now, I am not sure I can.

SENATOR MARVEL: Senator Duis and then Senator Cope.

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President, I have got a problem, too, in this regard and there is several questions that I will need answered, and, of course, in this particular amendment brings up the point in my mind and that is what do we do about those people on social security that are allowed to earn a certain amount of money who are out of a job. Maybe somebody could help me here as to whether or not this should be included in this amendment also. Does anyone know?

SENATOR MARVEL: Are you addressing Senator Lewis or Senator Mills?

SENATOR DUIS: I am just addressing the whole field here as to anyone that knows the answer to the question.

SENATOR MARVEL: Well, we are speaking to the Mills amendment specifically now.

SENATOR DUIS: I am, too, because I am wondering if this group should be included in this amendment.

SENATOR MARVEL: Senator Mills is on the phone. If you will hold just a minute, we will get back to him. Senator Mills, Senator Duis has a question for you. Will you yield?

SENATOR MILLS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR DUIS: Senator Mills, I am wondering if there should be another classification included in this particular amendment and that is those people who are on social security.

SENATOR MILLS: Again, Senator Duis, I can't honestly speak to that. I don't have the background in it. I'd have to do some research before I could honestly answer you. The only thing that I have done is when we are speaking to the veterans and I have called Washington and have talked to the Labor Department here and that is the only thing I was trying to address.
